

Women, Wine & Whimsy, Multi-Day Tour

Fun, fun, fun! Make this a wonderful girlfriend getaway or bring along the guys to join in the merriment.

We promise your jaws will drop open when you visit MacKenzie-Childs, a renown maker of majolica ceramic designs, whose factory is set on a scenic hillside overlooking Cayuga Lake. Located on a old farmstead, the original farmhouse has been transformed into a showcase for the company's pottery and home décor and it is OVER THE TOP! Playful and sophisticated at the same time with signature designs and bright colors,- your senses will be on whimsy overload. You'll also watch a short video showing how these artisan wares are created on site and browse in the factory showroom/gift shop.

Surrounded by wonderful wineries in this region which is the second largest wine producing area in the U.S., a wine tasting or two or three will be in order. Let us know how many wineries you'd like to visit so we can design the tour to take your wine-tasting needs into consideration.

This tour celebrates women with a visit to the Women's Rights National Historic Site in Seneca Falls, the town were in 1848, the first women's rights convention was held. Enjoy a short film, stand face to face with the convention organizers at "The First Wave" statue exhibit, and explore the park's exhibits dedicated to the fight for equality and the right to vote.

Another treat is a visit to a local artisan cheese maker's farm for a delicious tasting.

Shop 'til you drop at the 100-store Waterloo Premium Outlets! Shops include Ann Taylor Factory Store, Chico's, Jones New York, Tommy Hilfiger and many more for clothing plus more than a dozen shoe stores including Merrell and Clarks, and other name brand providers of leather and luggage, accessories and jewelry, housewares and home furnishings, gifts and specialty items. The site also has restaurants to keep you powered up as you explore this site.

For an evening of fun consider dinner at a quaint country inn and theater at the Merry-Go-Round theater in Auburn.

On tours of three days or more we can also include a visit Skaneateles, one of the Finger Lakes most beautiful lakeside villages for great shopping and dining with an optional sight-seeing cruise available.
