

Best of the Valley & Mountains, Multi-Day Tour

Wonderful mountains views in PA's Northern Tier and relaxing Susquehanna Valley vistas await in this tour featuring covered wagon rides, train excursion and paddlewheeler river cruise!

Visit the PA Grand Canyon, the state's own natural wonder, which stretches 50 miles and embraces over 300,000 acres of state-owned forest land. Enjoy views from the Leonard Harrison State Park outside of Wellsboro where you'll learn about the Civilian Conservation Corp activity in the region as well as the lumber that was timbered here and floated down creeks and streams to Williamsport to the south.

Also climb aboard covered wagons for horse-drawn wagon rides into the canyon's upper gorge and along Pine Creek. Learn about the canyon's glacial history and use as a path by native Americans as well as the local flora, fauna and wildlife. Equipped with rubber tires, shock absorbers and cushions, the wagons offer a comfortable and unique adventure.

In Williamsport learn more about the timber industry in the 1800s while enjoying a guided tour of Millionaires' Row where the lumber barons of the time built their beautiful homes and churches. Tour the Rowley House Mansion and have dinner in one of the mansions now a gourmet restaurant, The Peter Herdic House, plus visit the Taber Museum featuring the Shempp Toy Train Collection and more.

Dining is also included at the historic Penn Wells Restaurant in Wellsboro or at Lambs Creek's Food and Spirits in nearby Wellsboro. Tour generally overnights in Williamsport.

Multi-day tour, Memorial Day weekend through mid-to-late Oct.

Tour may also be modified to overnight in the Wellsboro/Mansfield area and include additional sites in nearby Corning, NY.
