

Mason-Dixon Wine Trail, One-Day & Overnight Tour

Get ready to explore the vintages of South-Central PA on the Mason-Dixon Wine Trail on a great one-day or overnight tour.

A highlight will be a visit to Naylor Wine Cellars in Stewartstown where Dick Naylor took his passion for wine from a budding hobby and turned it into a booming business in the 1970s. Over the years Dick has welcomed many tasters and taught many future wine makers the art of growing and making great wine and in November 2013 he was recognized for his pioneering achievements by the American Wine Society which presented him with their highest honor, the Award of Merit, joining a long list of superstars including Robert Mondavi and Konstantin Frank. Visits to this winery may include wine tasting with appetizers, as well as full wine-tasting dinners.

Additionally choose from a variety of other wineries and a distillery, the first in the region since Prohibition, that offers a line of vodka products, to round out your tour. You'll master the art of the 5 S's: See, Swirl, Smell, Sip & Savor!

Delicious dining options are available to compliment all the sipping on this tour. One great choice is a visit to the Victorian Parlor for a six-course gourmet luncheon in an exquisite setting in a historic home. Start with a fresh fruit salad with topping, then enjoy a fresh garden salad followed by a delightful dish of sweets such as scones, tea breads, muffins or brownies with Devonshire cream. The fourth course includes two kinds of sandwiches followed by a bowl of soup and finally a scrumptious dessert such as peaches and cream cake, chocolate cake, strawberry pie, Hawaiian cake, red velvet and other seasonal favorites. As a special touch group members will be able to choose from an assortment of hats to wear during the tea to compliment their outfit, their style or just the whimsy of the day. Great for a Wine & Women tour option!

Other dining options include a wonderful site rumored to have once been a speak-easy, a Penn Dutch market as well as a historic downtown market full of vendors offering wares and food treats.

If you'd like to add in some non-winery options consider tours of Harley-Davidson Motorcycle Plant or Utz Potato Chip Factory, visits to an artisan soap maker, pretzel factory, the Turkey Hill Ice Cream Experience, and more.
