

Mt. Nittany Wine Trail, One-Day or Multi-Day Tour

Wine around the beautiful countryside in Central PA tasting the offerings of multiple wineries along the Mt. Nittany Wine Trail and in the surrounding areas and perhaps add in a few other fun sites!

Central PA offers a climate that can bring out the best in wine varietals as you'll learn during tastings at Happy Valley Vineyard and Winery (dedicated to sustainable agricultural and one of the newest in the area), Seven Mountains Wine Cellars which recently won the Pennsylvania's Cup for both grape and fruit wines, and Mount Nittany Vineyard and Winery which produces seven varietals including Riesling, Seyval Blanc, and Cabernet Sauvignon. Additionally in the surrounding area Brookmere Winery, the oldest winery in the region and Oliveri's, another new one, can be included along with Big Spring Spirits, an eclectic distillery.

Food options include the four-diamond Nittany Lion Inn located on the grounds of Penn State in downtown State College. Built in 1913 the grand white landmark site has a Colonial country atmosphere and has hosted Presidents Eisenhower and Johnson, Eleanor Roosevelt, Helen Hayes and Louis Armstrong. You can also dine at the distillery and/or in a tavern from the early 1800s or on own in bustling State College.

Tour includes:

- Multiple wineries visits with tastings and optional tours
- Dining options at the Nittany Lion Inn, Duffy's Tavern and Big Spring Spirits
- Shopping at Tait Farms offering local harvest productions including shrubs (great for cocktails) and artisan goods, plus boutiques in State College and Boalsburg.
- Sightseeing activities such as an art museum, sports museum, stamp-collectors association scavenger hunt, tour of Penn's Cave (American's only all-water cavern) and the Columbus Chapel brought to America from descendents living in Boalsburg.
- Accommodations in a boutique hotel amid Penn State's hopping downtown scene or at a brand hotel outside of town and adjacent to a microbrewery restaurant and a distillery tasting room and restaurant so those who don't want the party to end can enjoy more tasting on their own!

Make it all about the wine or mix it up on a custom tour designed just for you!
