

Route 6: A Panoramic PA Passage, Multi-Day Tour

Route 6, the Grand Army of the Republican Highway, travels from Cape Cod, MA to Long Beach, CA including 400 miles through scenic PA. Find out why National Geographic called it one of America's most scenic byways on this tour featuring wonderful diversions along 300 miles on and off the highway including historic towns, scenic mountain views, quirky sites and more from Scranton to Erie with Jamestown, NY options as a bonus.

Starting in the eastern area of PA, Route 6 offer highlights include Steamtown National Historic Site in Scranton, featuring a Technology Museum and History Museum as well as train excursions. Explore the people, history, technology and lore of steam railroading at this renown site.

Continuing westward visit Wellsboro, home to the PA Grand Canyon where you'll enjoy views from the Leonard Harrison State Park plus perhaps covered wagon rides into the canyon's upper gorge and along Pine Creek, a train excursion from Wellsboro Junction to Hammond Lake, and time to enjoy an artisan chocolate factory tour and/or browsing in quaint Wellsboro which still has gas street lights.

In Sabinsville you may visit PA's largest maple farm for a tour plus deluxe tasting of nature's sweet treats, in Eldred a WWII Museum, in Mount Jewett the glass-bottomed Kinzua Gorge Skywalk, and in Galeton, the newly renovated and expanded PA Lumber Museum which offers a recreated turn-of-the-century logging camp with visitors center and exhibits including a CCC cabin and Shay locomotive.

Towards the western end of Route 6's PA leg you can zip north just a tad to explore highlights of Erie including the city's wonderful Maritime Museum which is home to the state's flagship, the Brig Niagara, plus historic sites such as St. Patrick's Church featuring nearly life-sized stations of the cross and the Warner Theatre.

You may also visit nearby Jamestown, NY which is Lucille Ball's hometown to learn all about this queen of comedy during a driving tour including visit to her gravesite and tour of the Lucille Ball Desi Center plus enjoy a lake cruise, winery tour and much more.

Multi-day tour, best May through Oct. Allow about six days to enjoy all the sites or choose to plan a shorter tour exploring one portion of Route 6.
